

Population	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Individuals eligible for routine schedule vaccination(s) or their parents or carers (as appropriate)</li> <li>• Healthcare staff organising relevant vaccination programmes or administering vaccinations.</li> </ul>
Intervention	The World Health Organisation Tailoring Immunisation Programmes approach used to design and test an intervention to increase vaccine uptake. This may be a multicomponent intervention and may target individuals eligible for routine schedule vaccination(s), their parents or carers (as appropriate) and/or healthcare staff
Comparator	Usual processes
Outcome	Quantitative outcomes including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• uptake of routine vaccinations by eligible people</li> <li>• offers of relevant vaccinations</li> </ul>
Study design	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Systematic review to identify and available evidence</li> <li>• Quantitative study: RCT or cluster RCT, cohort studies</li> </ul>
Timeframe	There is no specified time frame in which the study needs to be completed.
Additional information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The vaccinations must be available as detailed on the UK routine schedule.</li> <li>• Flu vaccination is excluded as this is out of scope of this guideline.</li> </ul>